Albert Peyton is ill with the measles. Herbert Cuyler, telegraph operator at Liberty station, with his wife motored up Sunday and spent the day with relatives here—Edgar Martin, wife and son, spent Monday with his parents here. The friends of Miss Edith Peyton, who went to the Chillicothe Business College a year ago last fall, will be glad to know that she has finished her course in stenography and bookkeeping and has a position. Elmer Mundy purchased a nice Jersey calf in Mexico last week. Mrs. J. A. Cuthbert received news, Monday, of the death of her cousin, Thomas Davis of Santa Fe. Miss Nellie Roberts has as her guest for the week end, Misses Thomas and Leek of Mexico. Mrs. Carl Wilson and children, of Mexico, were Sunday guests of James Greed and wife. The Rev. Henry Neighbors, pastor of Olivet, preached at Mt. Zion Church in Mexico Saturday night and Sunday night. We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Jack Hunt of Santa Fe. Mr. Hunt formerly lived near here. Miss Myrtle Van has been employed to teach next winter at Shady Dell. Miss Van taught there last year. Eli Level and family attended a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Level's parents, C. Hannah and wife of near Paris, Sunday. The occasion was a celebration of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Hannah, Mrs. Level, and Ray and Margaret Crigger, all of which occur in this week. Miss Mollie James of Laddonia has been employed to teach the next term of school at Bera. John Mundy and family were Sunday guests of Forest Weaver and wife east of Mexico.

Heres, 1910, Heres Mandy's imported Belgian stallion is advertised in the Ledger. Mr. Mandy bought a wonderful animal when he acquired Heres. He has never been defeated in the show ring.

French Field is advertising his splendid breeding stock in the Ledger. His prize of Mexico 1909 is one of the best animals of his kind in this section.

"The two levels of stores that I had here Wednesday at 8:45 brought me all the money I expected. I fed them for three months on corn, hay and molasses. They made good gains. We have an excellent crop of oats, but wheat is looking poor. Farmers are having good luck breaking the ground for corn. It does not seem to be too wet, as in other sections, and I look for a large acreage," stated E. M. Crooks the feeder of 41 steers that averaged 1060 lb that brought the above mentioned price. Mr. Crooks comes from Audrain county, Mo., and has a reputation as being one of the county's largest feeders.—Live Stock Reporter.

A 1400 pound mare belonging to L. V. Follington, of near Highgate, fell to a well recently, and while there gave birth to a colt. Both were saved through the heroic efforts of eight men.

Cocklehar Kills Missouri Hogs. Sedalia, Mo., April 25.—Investigation of recent deaths in droves of hogs in this section has revealed cocklehar poison as the cause, according to an announcement today by Dr. Ralph Graham, inspector in charge of the United States hog cholera station here.

FALL FRESHENING

MOST PROFITABLE

By Ross Martin, Rock Spring Dairy, Mexico, Missouri

1. Better prices. As an invariable rule prices of milk products are much higher in the winter than the summer. During the past winter the price of butter fat has ranged from 35 to 40 cents per pound while last summer it dropped as low as 20 cents per pound. There is always a strong demand for milk and cream in the winter. Then weather conditions are more favorable to marketing a first grade product especially if it must be shipped.

2. Cheaper calves. By having cows drop their calves in the fall the first period of the calf when he must be fed comes at the season of the year when he can use up the stored feed of the farm and when the farmer has the time to hand feed him. Then when he is six months old and going on the second period when he can forage for himself pasture is available and he needs no further attention. While with spring calves they must be fed during the period of grass and then again during the second period because there is no grass, or else the cows and calves are allowed to run together and so a loss of butter fat.

3. More milk. A cow that has been milked through the winter on dry feed will flush up like a fresh cow when she is turned on grass. Her period for being dry comes when flies are bad and grass is short.

4. Distribution of labor. In the winter doing the "chores" can occupy about all of the time while in the summer this must be divided between the crops and the cows.

5. Economical feeding. One acre planted in corn and put in a silo gives three times as much feed as one acre in grass.

6. Conservation of Manure. In the winter the manure can be saved if plenty of bedding is used and applied to the crop fields where it will bring best returns.

A few of the dairy farmers in this community who are breeding their cows to freshen in the fall and realize its better profit are: E. M. Lawder, Lester Miller, Otto Schopp, J. L. Axtan, J. J. Benzer. Next week the best way to bring cows from springers to fall freshening will be outlined.

MISSOURI CROP

CONDITIONS TODAY

By J. A. Gannell of Mexico, Sec'y of Missouri Grain Dealers Ass'n.

Practically every year at this time a large amount of interest is manifested as to the condition of the growing crops. Probably the subject has been discussed to a greater extent than usual owing to the varied reports that have been made, especially as to the condition of the winter wheat crop.

During the last three weeks I have traveled extensively in different sections of the state, attending local meetings and looking after other business for the Association and in the meantime I have personally interviewed a large number of grain dealers, millers and producers; besides I have received a large number of reports by correspondence, which taken as a whole, I believe indicates the following:

"WHEAT"—It has generally been conceded that the acreage in the state to wheat this year was about 30 per cent less than the acreage for a ten year average. In the southeast section of the state the crop seems to be the best. The damage by winter killing in this section is about 25 per cent. Considering the slight reduction in acreage, it is probable this

LIFE OF SAVAGE

TRULY SENSIBLE

Admittance Almost Unknown by Aborigines are Common New With People

The theory that most of the all-mighty of today are caused almost entirely by those habits that distinguish the white man from his long ago brethren, the savage, is more widely admitted every day.

The strange in many ways, was a more sensible being than the man who made war on him and then seized his inheritance. It has been said, by medical authorities, that nine out of ten cases of sickness can be traced to a disordered stomach, and that the ailments are due, in a large measure, to excessive eating and drinking and too little healthful outdoor exercise.

Common sense should be used in our mode of living. It was with this in mind that Joseph Trumbach, the noted chemist and originator of so many health aids, gathered herbs and flowers from the most remote parts of the world and spent years of his life experimenting and in study before he arrived at the solution of the problem of relieving stomach troubles. He named his discovery Tanlac. Tanlac has met with instant favor wherever it has been introduced. It has created a romance in the business world. Hundreds of thousands of sufferers have realized the benefits of this great reconstructive tonic.

Tanlac is believed to act more favorably, because of the nature of its ingredients, as ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys and on catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, which when neglected, are no often communicated to the vital organs themselves, than any other known preparation. This ideal reconstructive tonic, appetizer, invigorant and builder of tissue has been lauded by men and women in all walks of life.

Tanlac is now being especially introduced in Mexico by the Buckner Drug Co.

COEN.—Because of the small amount of land that was fall plowed and the continued wet weather this spring, corn planting will be a little later than usual. Practically no corn planted to date excepting in the extreme southern portion. With favorable weather conditions the indications are that a large acreage of corn will be planted in all sections of the state.

P. Warden and guest Warden Patterson of Virginia, are spending a few days at the Warden farm in this neighborhood.—Dr. and Mrs. Hickman, Mrs. Lena Clapper, Mr. H. P. Warden and Miss Emma Green were guests of Liberty school Friday.—Our farmers are very busy in their fields at present, and quite a large acreage of corn has been planted.—Seventy-five of the patrons and friends of Liberty school gathered there last Friday to enjoy a basket dinner, and the clever program that the teacher of Liberty, Miss Beale Hickman, and her pupils had arranged for the entertainment of the crowd.

The room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, and the maps, water colors, pen drawings and notes of the children. A miniature farm, complete in every detail, with encouragingly prosperous looking fields of grain was indicative of the hopes of this community. In one corner of the school room was a well equipped grocery store furnished with every variety of samples imaginable which had been contributed for the use of the school in buying and selling and making change, by Mr. J. G. King of King's Quality Market in Mexico. We have never seen a more attractive, more bountiful or better collection of "eats" served than the housekeepers of Liberty provided. Fried chicken, country ham, potato chips, sandwiches, salads, cakes and pies of every known variety. And, as Miss Hickman laughingly said, in her friendly, informal "before the curtain" speech, she knew we had all eaten until we were helpless to resist any further temptation to eat. The night fell upon us in the course of the afternoon. She had taught, and labored, and drilled those children for eight happy months, she said, and if they disagreed her by anything approaching failure she hoped the audience would administer swift and sure punishment. After listening to the program, we realize that she felt quite safe in trusting to our verdict of approval, for the entertainment was clever and original from the first numbers, when the baby of the school little Eleanor Mae Smith, gave the opening address to the last goodly speech. The motion songs by the graceful little girls, with Miss Hickman at the organ, the dialogues, solos, choruses, and recitations, were each perfectly given, and with no apparent need of a promoter. Joe Harrison as a dignified professor, especially pleased the audience with his story, personal jokes and upon various ones of the neighborhood. Opal Smith also deserves special mention, as her recitation was unusually good. After the program was finished, Miss Hickman surprised her pupils by announcing that she had some gifts to present. They had done their year's work with no promise of prizes, other than the pleasures and honor of excelling. But Permelia Owings, Nannie Belle Lockridge, Joe Harrison, Tom Archer and Martillius Barnes had been perfect in attendance. Opal Smith and Eleanor Mae Smith had done specially good work, and County Supt. Clyde Johnson on a recent visit to the school had commended Lena Smith's note book on Agriculture, and Permelia Owings, Nature Study Book, saying that they were the best he had seen in the county. So each of the pupils named received a souvenir to remind them in the future of good work done in 1915-1916. We think it was the pleasantest day of all the year in Liberty district. We like to think of our school house as a community building, and we are proud of our neighborhood, and our children, and grateful to Miss Hickman who has given us her best in the school room, and has been a delightful acquisition socially as well. She was asked if she would consider the school for next year, but she has not fully decided upon her plans for the winter, so it was with real regret that we told her goodbye and took our empty lunch baskets and our youngsters, who were quite the reverse, to our homes.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

By W. CLYDE JOHNSON, County School Supt.

Already the schools have begun making improvements. Naylor reports that they are digging a new well and will paint and re-plaster their school home. Miss Sadie Wynn has been re-employed.

Lawder has built a new fence and will probably move their barns. Miss Percie Fisher will stay for her third term.

Eureka will get a new stove and will keep Miss Alma Brown for her fourth term.

Mrs. Anna Kelley will teach Erisman next year. Miss Gladys Furber goes to West Lick, Miss Margaret Wright will teach at Black. Frank R. Hickerson goes to Crow. Miss Pearl Parker will teach her fourth term at Michigan. Misses Nelle Ball and Ella Criswell have been retained by the local boards at Prairie Mount and at East Lick. This is the sixth term for Miss Criswell. Miss Vena Smith will remain at McIntire. Miss Lillian Flint has been re-employed at Ringo. Fisher will keep Miss Ruth Cook for the third term. They will also buy a heating plant. Miss Beulah Crawford will remain at Dotis for her third term. She has an eighth month term this year, and this met the requirements for approval. I found two of her pupils, John Elliott ments with the handsome proceeds of her box supper. She got a library case, some library books, painted the blackboard, and made some such curtains. She made the school a Christmas present of a large, beautiful framed picture.

Miss McKinzie, with an enrollment of but twenty-two, in spite of sickness and the removal of a number from the district, was able to maintain the daily average of sixteen. They started in to get their school, Hisey, on the approved list. A Smith heater was installed. New curtains and books were bought, and then they got a sanitary bubbling drinking fountain. But things were not to go smoothly. The wall caved in, and the weather would not permit digging a new one, the fountain was useless. But still they persevered, and on the closing day a certificate of approval was presented the school. She was re-employed.

At Cedar Grove there were 15 pupils present. They began at eight o'clock that they might get through their day's work ere time for the school meeting. As the fire would burn, they were quite uncomfortable. Another year they will have a heater. This year the children have made some fine posters, the floor has been oiled, the house painted, they have bought a new case of maps, some sanitary paper toweling, and curtains have been put around the shelves, thus hiding dinner buckets and wares from view. This is a very worthy and Elizabeth Botts and a former pupil from Hazel, Alma Bias, doing their high school work by taking the University Extension course. They are making some fine grades.

Beagles has employed Miss Gertrude Nagel, a student and teacher in the Kirkville Normal. Miss Mildred Cook returns to Gatewood. Excelsior has secured Miss Lena Wilson, a home girl, and a graduate of the training course at Central High School. Miss Minnie Forbes will remain at Friendship. Miss Bess Watson closed a successful term at Burham recently with a big community meeting. There were two or three speakers who discussed live subjects of interest. A large number was present. Miss Watson was re-employed.

Miss May Hofrichter goes back to Mt. Pisgah. Unfortunately they were not successful in raising the levy that they might have an eight month school.

Daniel wants Miss Mary Griffin for her third term. They voted a 45 cent levy. Mrs. Nellie McKeehan will teach at High Hill. They voted a big levy this time. Walker has re-employed Miss Myrtle Roberts. Miss Zella Brown goes to Chapel Grove. W. L. Hallow will remain at Flynt. Eleven pupils remained faithful to the end at Beaver Dam. Miss Mable Hickman has made several improvement, and it is not expensive. Miss Mary Hatcher has been re-employed.

The Farmers Club at Skull Lick are considering the question of consolidating. They have a big three days' meeting this week at Naylor with the Naylor and Harrison Clubs. This is a fine thing, and is doing the communities much good.

Promising faithful service, I ask your support for
